

3rd Grade CCSS Language Arts Word Search 22

1. First, write the correct clue number to the left of each word in the Word Bank. Then, circle the words that have been hidden vertically, horizontally, and diagonally.

- The vantage point from which a story is presented.
- The sequence of events that make up a story.
- The decisive moment or turning point when the rising action of the play is reversed to falling action.
- The message or underlying meaning a writer reveals in a novel, short story, or other literary work.
- The elements of plot after a story's climax and before the resolution.
- A struggle between two opposing forces.
- When the conflict is resolved at the end of the story.
- People, animals, or creatures in a story or drama.
- A related series of incidents in a literary plot that build toward the point of greatest interest.
- A little story or small piece of information.
- The background information of the characters and setting explained at the beginning of the story.
- The mood implied by an author's word choices.

exposition

falling action

conflict

point of view

characters

tone

rising action

anecdote

plot

resolution

theme

climax