

3rd Grade Science Word Search 10

1. First, write the correct clue number to the left of each word in the Word Bank. Then, circle the words that have been hidden vertically, horizontally, and diagonally.

- A tool that makes very small things look bigger.
- All the different populations that live together in an area.
- The way some traits come from the parent to the offspring; heredity.
- DNA segments that serve as the key functional units in hereditary transmission.
- Something that describes an organism.
- To make more of the same kind.
- Forces that cause a change in the motion of an object.
- The force that pulls objects toward earth.
- When something becomes different over time.
- Steady, not changing.
- Equal forces acting on an object in opposite directions.
- A new organism produced by one or more parents.
- A group of organisms of the same species populating a given area.
- Tiny parts that make up living things.
- A group of organisms that are closely related and can produce offspring.

balanced forces

gravity

genes

microscope

reproduce

offspring

trait

community

population

inheritance

stable

unbalanced forces

species

cell

change