

4th Grade Science Word Search 5

1. First, write the correct clue number to the left of each word in the Word Bank. Then, circle the words that have been hidden vertically, horizontally, and diagonally.

- Seasonal movement of animals from one region to another.
- The transfer of pollen to a stigma, ovule, flower, or plant to allow fertilization.
- Organisms that hatch from eggs, have wings and feathers.
- The series of changes in the life of an organism including reproduction.
- Behaviors that are learned through experience.
- A characteristic or behavior that helps a living thing survive.
- The use of any combination of materials, coloration, or illumination for concealment (being hidden), either by making animals, humans, or objects hard to see, or by disguising them as something else.
- Organisms with warm blood, who drink milk, and sweat when it's warm.
- To arrange or sort objects according to their shared characteristics.
- Organisms born in the water and have gills that become lungs.
- A vertebrate animal of a class that includes snakes, lizards, crocodiles, turtles, and tortoises. They are distinguished by having a dry scaly skin and typically laying soft-shelled eggs on land.
- A limbless cold-blooded vertebrate animal with gills and fins and lives wholly in water.
- Traits that are passed down from parents to their offspring.

life cycle

inherited trait

amphibians

adaptation

reptiles

fish

camouflage

learned trait

classify

mammals

pollination

migration

birds