

Butterflies Crossword Puzzle

1. Using the Across and Down clues, write the correct answer in the numbered grid below.

ACROSS

2. The seasonal movement of butterflies from one region to another.
3. A long, coiled tube used by butterflies to drink nectar.
6. A family of butterflies with distinctive tail-like extensions on their hindwings.
8. The caterpillar stage of a butterfly's life cycle.
10. A family of butterflies that includes colorful species like the Painted Lady.
12. A protective casing formed by a caterpillar before it becomes a butterfly.
13. A well-known butterfly species known for its long-distance migration.
14. The period of inactivity during the winter months for some butterfly species.
15. A type of butterfly family characterized by reduced front legs.
16. Sensory appendages on a butterfly's head used for sensing the environment.
17. A type of butterfly known for the metallic spots on its wings.

DOWN

1. Sweet liquid found in flowers that butterflies feed on.
2. The transformation process from caterpillar to butterfly.
3. The stage of a butterfly's life cycle when it's inside a chrysalis.
4. The ability of some butterflies to blend in with their surroundings.
5. The specific plant species where a butterfly lays its eggs.
6. Tiny, overlapping structures on a butterfly's wings that create its color patterns.
7. The resemblance of some butterflies to other objects or harmful species.
9. Chemical substances released by butterflies to communicate with each other.
11. The natural environment where a specific butterfly species lives.

---

larva
habitat
silverspot
scales
migrate

mimicry
swallowtail
monarch
metamorphosis
pheromone

nymphalidae
chrysalis
camouflage
nectar
antenna

brush-footed
pupa
host plant
hibernation
proboscis