

4th Grade Academic Vocabulary Crossword Puzzle 1-3

1. Using the Across and Down clues, write the correct answer in the numbered grid below.

ACROSS

- Not influenced by personal feelings.
- The people who read or watch something.
- A rough version of a written work.
- The main character in a story.
- To explain the meaning of something.
- Information that supports a claim.
- To give a brief statement of the main points.
- The most important point of a text.

DOWN

- The end of something.
- The main subject or idea in a text.
- A conversation between characters.
- To make a guess based on evidence.
- To prepare and print a text for people to read.
- A section of a book.
- The events that make up a story.

protagonist

publish

infer

evidence

objective

audience

main idea

summarize

conclusion

interpret

dialogue

chapter

theme

draft

plot