

SAT Words To Master - Study Sheet 17

1. protract To prolong.
2. provocative Causing annoyance or anger.
3. pugnacious Eager to argue or fight.
4. punctilious Showing great attention to detail.
5. quagmire A soft boggy area of land; a complex situation.
6. quandary A state of perplexity or uncertainty.
7. quell To put an end to, typically by force.
8. querulous Complaining in a petulant manner.
9. quiescent In a state or period of inactivity.
10. quintessential Representing the most perfect example.
11. quixotic Extremely idealistic; unrealistic.
12. rancor Bitterness or resentment.
13. raze To completely destroy.
14. recalcitrant Having an obstinately uncooperative attitude.
15. recant To say that one no longer holds an opinion.
16. recluse A person who lives a solitary life.
17. recondite Little known; abstruse.
18. refulgent Shining brightly.
19. refute To prove to be wrong.
20. remiss Lacking care or attention to duty.