
ACROSS

2. The authority of a court to review decisions made by lower courts.
4. Powers specifically granted to the national government by the Constitution.
5. Political donations regulated by law.
7. Punishment prohibited by the Eighth Amendment.
9. Efforts to influence policymakers on behalf of an interest group.
12. A political party that competes with the two major parties.
13. A legal document authorizing a police search.
14. The argument that affirmative action policies unfairly disadvantage members of majority groups.
15. A voting system in which the candidate with the most votes wins, even if they do not receive a majority.
16. Government censorship of information before it is published or broadcast.
17. Federal requirements imposed without providing funding.

Selective Exposure

Writ of Certiorari

Due Process Clause

Hard Money

Appellate Jurisdiction

Caucus

Cruel and Unusual Punishment

Plurality

Search Warrant

DOWN

1. A Supreme Court order requesting the lower court to send case records for review.
3. The tendency of people to consume media that aligns with their beliefs.
6. A clause in the 14th Amendment that ensures fair legal procedures.
8. False written statements that damage a person's reputation.
9. A period when an elected official is still in office but has little power due to impending departure.
10. A political ideology favoring minimal government intervention in both economic and social matters.
11. A meeting of party members to select candidates.

Enumerated Powers

Unfunded Mandates

Lobbying

Libertarianism

Libel

Reverse Discrimination

Third Party

Prior Restraint

Lame Duck